a vacancy for One Lieu.t and two Corp.s as I cannot do wile Attribute that number.

I have forwarded to your Care an Open Letter for Mess.rs Rotton, which you will please to peruse (if you see no Objection) Seal it, direct it, and forward it to its destination.

Bill Fontaine. 11 June 1806.

Dr. Sir /

Yours of the 28.th ult.o I have received and have delivered the Letter to Mr. Eagles and shall be attended to as directed in yours. as in the first you are more than commonly communicative, and with me up often by the notice. If my omission in not sending you a return of the Detachment. — And see here a plain Table will put you down. I was Informed on my return, that all my Detachment neither myself belonged to Artillery — This Information Came from the A.t.D.C. of our Regt. and the Aid de Camp to the Commander in Chief — who, should know the Transactions which had taken place if they did not? — as for the affair of the two men it was partly forced on me, and of them three more grounds to my feelings, at that time; than it can be now. Mr. James Williams (who accompanied me) has two favorite men in Lackawanna Comp.y. Where Mines were nearly ended and after mine persuadeis I agreed to an exchange, the two men entering into engagements that in case they were ordered on Command they would serve out the tour of Duty as Soldiers — but they demanded their Discharges and obtained them — they it is true were transfer'd to Rifles B— & as we then conceived the whole Detachment to be this — and Lt McCrimon wrote the Order (by permission of his Captain) and made it a transfer from R. B. & to him. but the Case & Reasons of Appeal you

Enclosed you will never apply to the Genl. for a transfer of your men, to any person what-ever; unless it should have a Corps of your own, then you may give them up as lost: for those men have served with me many a long year & notwithstanding — they are such Damn'd Rascals that you could keep no Books or Journ for them, yet I find them very clever Fellows — but I yesterday received a Bridle, and am now certain to be the Man again be promoted; but beg you to keep a vacancy for one Serg.t and two Corp.s as I cannot do more than that number.

I have forwarded to your care an open letter for your brother, which you will please to peruse (if your face can tolerate) then seal it, and forward it to its destination.

With my House, if you can only obtain some person who will keep the lot a fence round it, (unless you can get better terms) I shall be satisfied:- you have inclosed an extract of a letter I wrote to Gov.r Harrison which you will see is to the point. I have writ to your brother this letter and commit to the particular care of Messrs and inclose them Notes &c. Pritchard shew unto Settle my money matters in this country as I am in some hopes to have some shortly.

I am Yours Sincerely

Wm Rhea
